

The Amilla Estate:-

For those looking to impress, the Amilla Estate works the wow factor at every angle. Interiors are easy on the eye: a tawny palette of tans and creams enriched by custom-made timber doors and hand-carved lattice screens. Furnishings are clean and uncluttered and the house is wired with state of the art TV and sound systems. Floor to ceiling windows perfectly frame the drama of the light, sea and sky of the Maldives and outside wooden decks invite you to put your feet up around the wraparound pool that has sunken sun loungers in the shallows for ultimate tanning time. The outdoor area incorporates an expansive deck with hot tub, pool table and bar area, which can be staffed on request by our super talented mixologist. For fitness conscious there is a state of the gym and sauna and our resident fitness expert's can arrange dynamic personalize training programs.
